

BOXES

Hello, good morning, welcome to the world
I was brought to life with an ear full of pearls Dream big, you can do it all
You can go to space and be a captain in the sea
I thought I had a light so I could be brighter
But it seems I'm only gettin milder
And my thoughts and my ideas didn't have a fight either
I was kind though, I gave me a gift

A BOX

Bright and shiny on the inside
A place that I could call mine
My dreams flow as if they're already made
Already made from the medal that surrounds me
Fills me with hope that someday I can be a success
And maybe even prosperous
And I can have a home with a spare bedroom Sounds nice right

That's just the box speaking or I guess it's me and my voice bouncing off the walls hello, can you hear me, I am leaving but it looks like I'm stuck hello, can you hear me, hello , can you hear me

Hello

I've been here for a long time
Waiting on you to come bye
Pay a visit to your old life
Having a conversation
Featuring the go to phrases that escape
I know it all too well
I know it all too well I've been here before
I know it all too well I've been here before
I know it all too well I've been here before
I know it all, too, well

I'm not stuck by anything physical It's all psychological
Cause if I don't make enough money nothings possible
So here I am man, I'm makin moves
Here I am man, I'm making moves

Something that I can't do is be direct when it's hard
I don't give honest feedback and I don't travel far From the surface if I don't know you or your story
Can you meet me half-way
Can you tell me if I'm boring
I with I took constructive criticism well
But I can't cause I'm a sensitive guy
I'm a sensitive guy
I'm a sensitive guy
I'm a sensitive guy
I'm a sensitive

However

I'm not exclusive and I don't respect the hierarchy
I'm a big fan of tribe mindset with some anarchy Take a tree to a street light one God made one I made and one you need to see and one you need to breath and I thought I had to choose so now my house is a square my house is a square

I'm on my way to the sea of insecurity
It's gonna be great so if you want you can follow me
